Northrop and VocalEssence Present

WITNESS Young People's Concert Eyes Still on the Prize

Fri Feb 21, 10:00-11:00 am

Busing, Arrival, and Departure Information

Thank you for joining us for the matinee performance of WITNESS Young People's Concert Eyes Still on the Prize on Fri Feb 21, 10:00-11:00 am at Northrop's Carlson Family Stage at the University of Minnesota. Please read and follow the steps below to make your experience with us safe, easy, and fun.

Scheduling

- Please plan your schedule and busing so you arrive at Northrop between 9:25 am and 9:50 am..
- The performance will begin at exactly 10:00 am and will last for approximately 60 minutes.
- Please allow a little time in your schedule before and after the performance for our entering and exiting process, and the time needed to walk to your buses.

Arrival, Parking, and Departure

- All bus arrivals should approach Northrop from University Avenue SE. (Note: This is a one-way street heading east.)
- Follow the direction from University staff/Police who will guide you to one of the four bus zones for parking.
- Northrop Ambassadors will be wearing bright yellow vests and will help guide you from your parking zone to the event.
- Buses will stay in place in one of four zones during the performance, unloading and loading back up at the same location.
- See the map for designated bus unloading and parking areas, entering Northrop, accessibility drop-off and pick-up, and walking routes.
- Schools attending the 10:00 am performance must have their busses out of the bus zones by 11:20 am.

Seating

- Northrop staff will seat groups in assigned seating sections.

Buses Leaving after Drop-Off and Returning for Pickup:

We prefer buses to stay, but understand not all buses have that option.

- After dropping passengers off, buses leaving campus during the performance should plan to return to University Avenue SE at 10:50 am or later to be directed by University staff/Police where to park for pick up.
- Teachers/chaperones and bus drivers should exchange cell phone numbers before drop off so bus drivers can notify them where they are parked for pick up.

Accessible Bus Unloading and Parking

- Please inform the Education Coordinator in advance at matinees@umn.edu if you will need accessibility drop-off.
- The Education Coordinator will email you a pass. Print the Accessibility Pass to present to University staff/Police if asked.
- A drop-off zone at the east entrance of Northrop is available ONLY for buses with passengers needing wheelchair or other accessibility accommodations.
- Enter this drop-off zone via Church Street SE from University Avenue SE.
- These buses cannot remain in this drop-off area and will be directed by University staff/Police where to park.

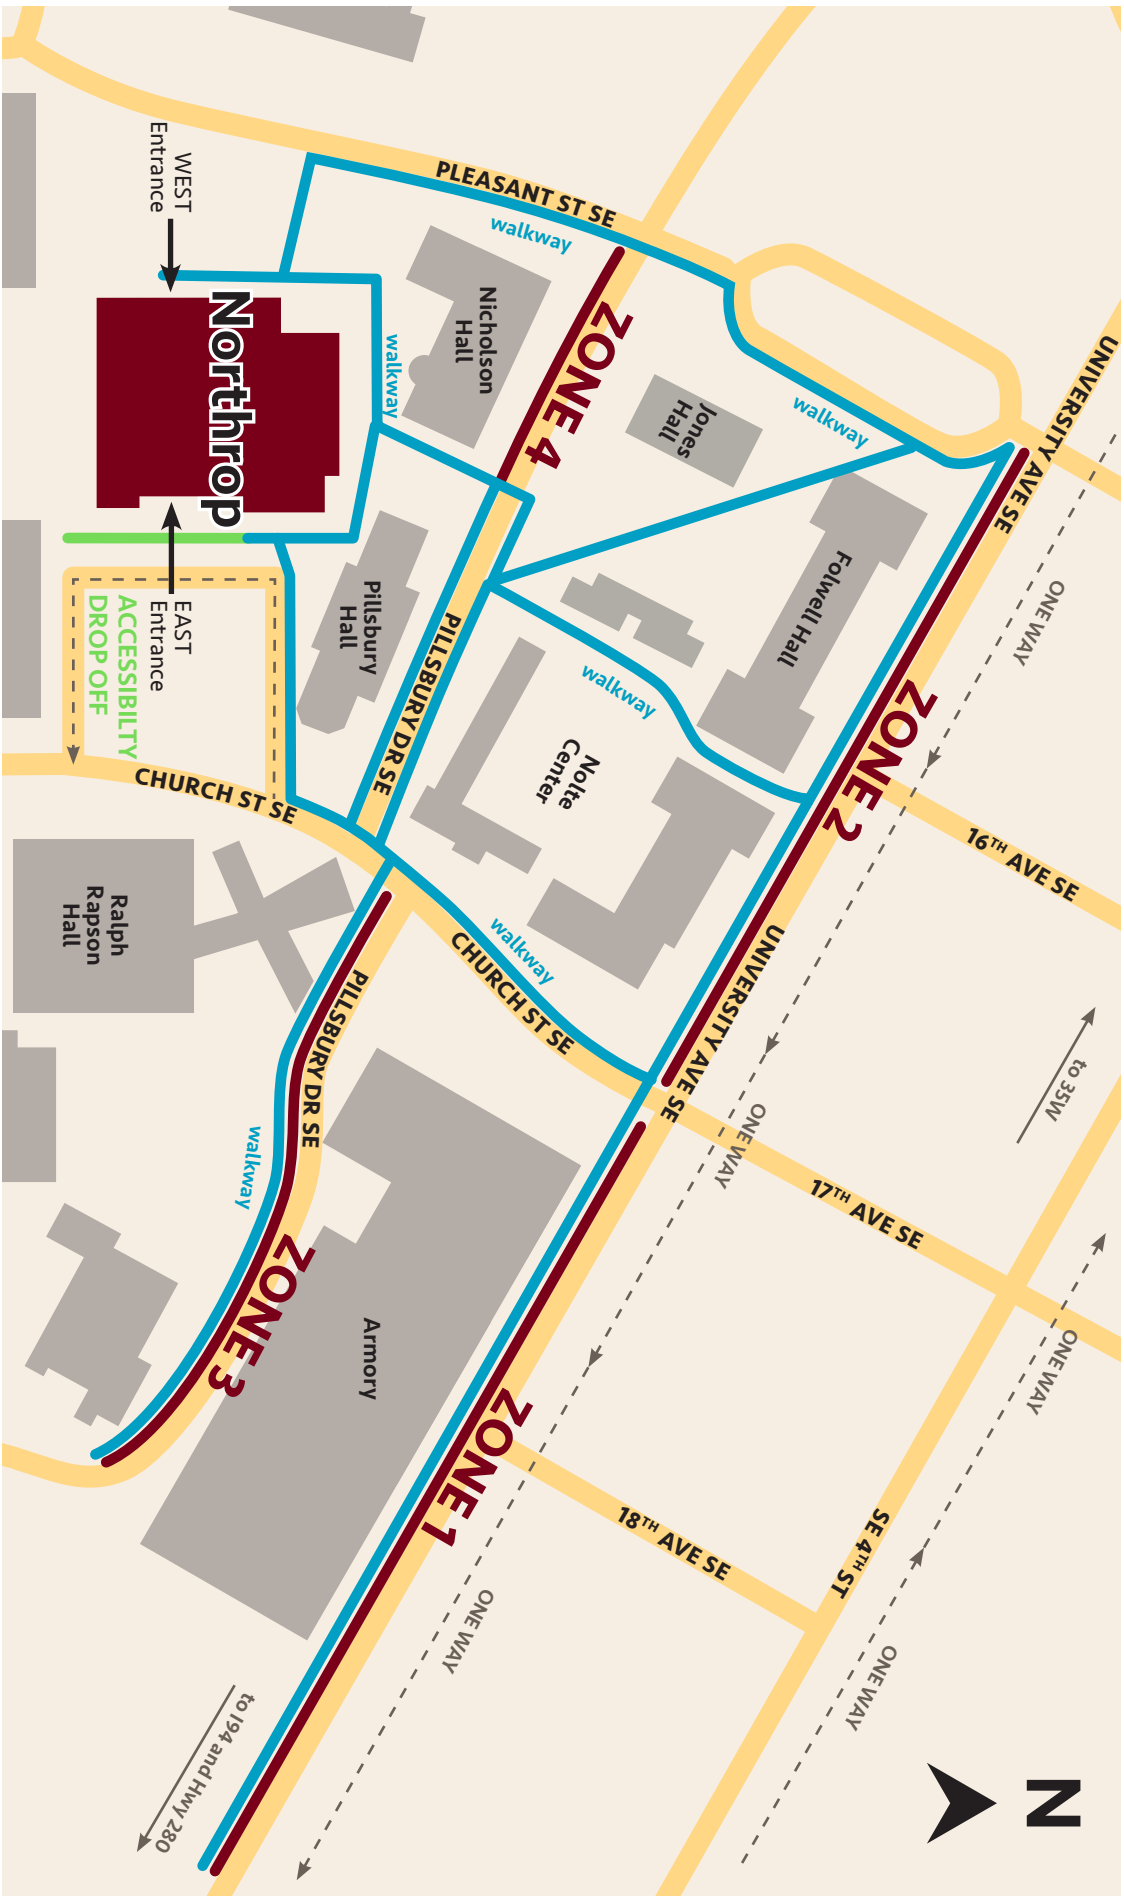

Running Late or Have Questions on the Day of the Performance?

- You can contact Education Coordinator, Cristina Castro at castr065@umn.edu or by cell at 210-710-7531.
- Call the Box Office at 612-624-2345 to let them know if you are running late, have an issue or a question.
